AREA

Château La Roseraie Du Mont was passed down to me by my father, who got it from his grandmother Yvonne Descombes who herself inherited it from the DUMONT family.It is one of the rare properties that did not freeze in 1956. Today I have reduced its surface area to approximately two hectares. The vines are on the plateau at the top of the Puisseguin hill at an altitude of 100 meters. The varied grape varieties contribute to the organoleptic richness of the wine.
