HAUTE VALEUR ENVIRONNEMENTALE

Caroline and Pierre Bécot, co-owners of Château Beau-Séjour Bécot (1st Grand Cru Classé), acquire Château Bernon Bécot, family property, in 2015. The family vineyard extends today to 9ha, located on the highest clay-limestone plateau in the Puisseguin Saint-Emilion appellation, where it benefits from excellent exposition. The grape varieties are the majority Merlot (95%) and Cabernet Franc (5%). Each plot is precisely followed, anxious to stay as close as possible to nature, Château Bernon Bécot opted for a reasoned culture of the vineyard. If you want to know more and follow the different steps within the vineyard: here is the Château Bernon Bécot Professional Page as well as the website www.bernonbecot.com
