AGRICULTURE BIOLOGIQUE

Château Gros Caillou is a historic domain of the Saint-Émilion appellation created in 1880 a stone's throw from the city listed as World Heritage by UNESCO. The Château Gros Caillou benefits from the specific specifics to the terroir of Saint-Émilion; Composed of a sablo-gravel soil. It is this particular and precious terroir that allows it to produce balanced and elegant wines. In 2017, Jean-François Fonteneau, passionate entrepreneur, launched major renovation works to revive this historic field and cultivate the difference of an atypical and friendly castle at the heart of an exceptional designation ...
