The story of Château Faugères does not date from yesterday ... According to the in -depth research of the historian Roland Kissling, André de Faugères had already identified in 1619 the exceptional potential of the Faugères vineyard. 400 years later, Silvio Denz perpetuates his vision ... The greatest successes arise from mixed influences as evidenced for example the chai of Château Faugères built by the famous architect Mario Botta putting himself at the service of a prestigious vintage and Vinification art. With the support of teams as experienced as passionate about its owner endeavors to mix know-how and bring together expertise to deliver vintages each year in a continuous quest for excellence while respecting the Grand Terroir de Saint-Émilion...
