HAUTE VALEUR ENVIRONNEMENTALE

Château St-Ferdinand, in the heart of the Lussac-St Emilion vineyard, is a 6.6 hectare property on which Noémie Tanneau settled as a winemaker in 2020. Noémie, an agricultural, passionate and daring engineer, is not from a family of winegrowers. She knew how to see the great potential of Château St-Ferdinand, both by the quality of her vineyard and by the richness of her biodiversity, her calm, her serenity. Château St-Ferdinand is the symbol and the story of a transmission between two women: Annette and Noémie. Annette Bion has exploited the vineyard for almost 30 years and wanted to transmit the keys and secrets to Noémie. Innovation, ancestral methods and femininity are making the new St-Ferdinand castle today. He fell asleep for almost 10 years, here he is today, proud and new, offering you a new range to discover.
