HAUTE VALEUR ENVIRONNEMENTALE

Rooted on the limestone plateau with a south/ south-west exhibition The Beauséjour vineyard takes on the air of greenery. Small 6.8ha garden placed on the limestone rock, it is in one of the most remarkable sites of the Saint Emilion Grand Cru appellation. With a terroir recognized by all as exceptional, the latter delivers vintages of a huge guard and an incredible freshness. Since the creation of the Saint Emilion wines in 1955, Château Beauséjour has always belonged to the very limited circle of the first great classified vintages. In the Duffau-Lagarrosse family since 1847, Château Beauséjour changed its hand in April 2021. He is now led by a duet of two young women, Prisca Courtin and Joséphine Duffau-Lagarrosse. Axel Marchal and Julien Viaud, a talented and dynamic team, accompanies this duo, to always reveal this fabulous terroir.
