HAUTE VALEUR ENVIRONNEMENTALE

In the shadow of his beautiful 19th century home this Grand Cru castle classified in Saint-Emilion perpetuates traditional know-how in search of high quality. Following the acquisition in 2005, major technical and architectural works were undertaken. Since then, the wine has been worked in the delicacy and the regularity of the style, without ever distorting the notion of terroir. From this constant work in the end a great fleshy and tasty classified cru, with high guard potential.
