The Château Cap de Mourlin is one of the oldest property in Saint-Emilion.The Capdemourlin family has been present since the 16th century and has given its name to the property.Thirteen generations follow one another to share this passion for wine and transmit knowledge. Located on a clay soil in the heart of the Saint-Émilion appellation, the Château Cap de Mourlin covers 14 hectares of vines.Raised in the rank of Grand Cru classified in 1955, this exceptional wine seduced by a fine, complex nose, and subtly saved with truffles and pepper.Coming from a meticulous assembly of Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon, this vineyard is carefully managed according to reasoned agriculture practices.Offering a remarkable childcare potential of 15 years and over, each bottle embodies the excellence and authenticity of the Saint-Émilionnais terroir.
