Château Chauvin, Grand Cru classified since 1955, has belonged since 2014 to the Cazes-Régimbeau family. They are also co-owner of the famous Château Lynch-Bages in Pauillac, pioneer of wine tourism. Sylvie Cazes and her team warmly welcome Saint-Emilion wine enthusiasts and share this haven of peace in the heart of one of the most beautiful vineyards in the appellation. On the horizon of the property, you can discover the villages that make up the names of Pomerol and Saint-Emilion. 40 km from the center of Bordeaux, this family property offers a friendly stop to make you discover its new cellars at the cutting edge of technology and reveal the secrets of the elegance of a large wine.
