DEMETER

Clos Systey is the story of a small 2 hectare vineyard, nestled in Saint-Émilion and created in 2015 by Sylvie Dulong, passionate oenologist, and Stéphan Gwitz. Their dream: to create an exceptional wine, respectful of biodiversity. This dream took shape with Clos Systey, a certified biodynamic wine and appreciated by amateurs and professionals. 2024 marks a key step: the 10th vintage in the estate. Today, a new chapter begins: Sylvie and Stéphan are taking over to the Dulong family, ready to take up new challenges while remaining faithful to the values of the domain. Fanny Dulong and her husband Juan Moretti become the new winegrowers, accompanied by Paul and Adrien Dulong. Paul, architect, renovated the property and designed the Cuvier. Adrien, an expert in technologies, brings his digital know-how. Sylvie Dulong, oenologist, remains an advisor to maintain excellence.
