EN CONVERSION BIO

It all started when in 2020, the Weinberg family discovered this abandoned and uninhabited castle for many years. Surrounded by brambles and hundred-year-old trees, this 19th century house, located in the heart of the vineyard of Saint-Emilion Grand Cru, immediately charmed them. The family decided to buy it and bring it back to life. Renamed and carefully renovated, the Château Coupelle d'Ertan has become a welcoming oenotourism stop around the village of Saint-Emilion. In addition to restoring the castle, the Weinberg have acquired some vines, creating a very confidential wine, served exclusively at the castle. Evelyne and Christian, children of the country and lovers of their region and its gastronomy, make it a point of honor to personally receive all their hosts, sharing with them their passion for wine and local culture.
