Welcome to the castle, a wine pearl nestled in the hills of Lussac Saint-Émilion. This enchanting area, steeped in centuries of wine history, offers an unforgettable sensory experience for wine lovers. The vines that extend as far as the eye can see capture the essence of the terroir, bathed by the sweet sun of the region. Each row of vines tells a story, each bunch of grapes carries the seal of passion and the know-how transmitted from generation to generation. The Château Test embodies the perfect alliance between tradition and modernity. Its centuries-old cellars are home to wine treasures, exceptional exceptional cuvées in oak barrels, revealing rich and complex aromas that capture the very essence of Saint-Emilion. Whether for a tasting, a guided tour or a simple walk in the vineyards, a visit to the Château Test promises a memorable experience, where the passion for the winemaker mixes with the timeless magic of Saint-Émilion.
