HAUTE VALEUR ENVIRONNEMENTALE

Coming from a family property acquired in the 19th century by the Brun family, the Château Belle Assise Coureau was taken over by a group of friends in 2013 under the impetus of Jean Pierre Beltoise, former great car runner and winner of the Monaco Grand Prix (F1) and Alain Garitey, Parisian lawyer from the region. It is Lionel Gallais who takes the direction of the castle and entrusts to Paul Junet, a young oenologist of Saint-Emilion, the task of expressing the superb potential of this beautiful terroir.
