Troplong Mondot is located at the highest point of the Saint-Emilion appellation. It might just be the most beautiful view of the village, it's actually absolutely unique geology which makes its wines just as unique. But that's not all, on the hill the castle displays another facet with a Michelin-starred gourmet restaurant, high-end rooms and exclusive tours. Here, everything is designed to conduct the activity in an ecologically appropriate, socially beneficial and economically viable manner. It is this combination that makes Troplong Mondot a place like no other.
