Château Franc, second wine of Château Franc Patarabet, is a family wine estate, for 6 generations, located in the heart of the Saint-Émilion Grand Cru appellation, growing vines on clay-limestone terroirs. The estate was created in the middle of the 19th century by the blacksmith from Saint-Émilion. Today he produces Saint-Émilion Grand Cru by combining respect for traditions and modern winemaking techniques. The history of the castle is that of a family transmission which has preserved authenticity while adapting the operation to contemporary requirements.
