HAUTE VALEUR ENVIRONNEMENTALE

Coming from a large line of sailors, we have been anchored in the Bordeaux vineyard since the end of the 18th century to devote ourselves to the culture of vine and wine. First established in Entre-Deux-Mers, we are breeding our wines today on three magnificent terroirs bringing together the diversity of Bordeaux: Chateau Vignol en Entre-Deux-Mers, Château Tour de Calens in Graves and Château Saint-Ange here. It was in 2009 that we acquired this two -hectare garden vineyard. Here the vines of vines aged over forty years are rooted on a precious vein of serious. The name of Saint-Ange refers as much to the sacred imagination which floats on the city of Saint-Emilion as to the delicious messages of the shared tasting of wine. Paradise is not so far.
