The Richard-Biès family has been practicing viticulture for almost 200 years, thus perpetuating family know-how. It was Denis Biès, cooper and master of chai at the beginning of the last century, who contributed to the good renown of the castle of Saint Christophe. After the second war, his little daughter married the wine broker Gilbert Richard who affirmed his wine passion. Fifty years later, their grandson Frédéric and his wife Aurélie cultivate the terroir in the same spirit.
